

Internal Peer Review

Applicants are encouraged to submit their draft applications early to be eligible for internal peer review (IPR).

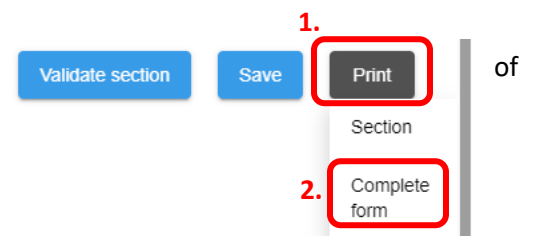

Applications submitted for this process will be delegated to a colleague experienced with Teaching and Learning Grants and Scholars' applications and adjudications to provide suggestions for revisions before the final submission deadline.

Please note that making revisions as suggested does not guarantee success of the application in the adjudication process; rather the IPR, process is offered as an opportunity for semi-formal feedback only.

How to Submit:

- Applications submitted for internal peer review are NOT required to be complete, have Leadership Approvals or be validated through the portal

1. Click on Print at the top or bottom right corner your application form in the Synto platform
2. Click complete form and save as a pdf.
3. Send your pdf. to TLgrants@ucalgary.ca

Develop something new or innovate something already in individual activities to entire programs, such as the creation of a sign of activities, courses, or programs. Development and laborative. Recipients will share their work with relevant campus

Need help? TLgrants@ucalgary.ca

Please note this is a new platform and new process and we welcome any feedback you have to help us continue to improve our program. You can send your feedback to TLgrants@ucalgary.ca