PROJECT OUTCOMES

6. Please share a brief description of your project and 3-5 findings, take-aways, or key learnings that you would like share. How has your work changed your understanding of student learning experiences? (Up to 500 words) *

7. Please describe the impact of your project on others. How many students, faculty, and staff were impacted at UCalgary? What impacts did your work have within a course, department, faculty, university, and/or beyond UCalgary? Work of this sort can often have expected and unexpected "ripple effects," where its reach can extend beyond its original scope – did your project produce any ripple effects? Please describe and provide numbers where possible. (Up to 250 words) *

8. How has being involved in this project impacted members of the project team? For example, new opportunities, committee invitations, leadership opportunities, career direction, tenure, promotion, other funding opportunities. Please include specifics when possible, and highlight impacts for student members of the project team. (Up to 250 words) *

DISSEMINATION OF RESULTS

9. Please describe how you involved students as partners in this project, and discuss the benefits of engaging with students as partners. (Up to 250 words) *

10. How have shared your key learnings and findings? Please include links where available (e.g., to PRISM digital repository <https://library.ucalgary.ca/services/repositories-and-publishing>), and use an asterisk to indicate where students were involved.

Examples of dissemination can include any of the following: department meetings, workshops, conference presentations, blogs, podcasts, publications, open education materials, and many other formats. *

11. Please share any future plans for sharing your work.

12. Storytelling about the impact of UCalgary Teaching and Learning Grants funded projects is an important way to connect with the community. Would you be open to being contacted about future opportunities to share your work? *
